Amish Country News is printed seven times annually with a guaranteed print run of 290,000 copies per year, distributing them more accurately and in such an impactful way to make sure that visitors to Amish Country News will pick up the magazine and see your business at the same time, giving you, our valued client, a better value. 🐎
